You have the right to request corrections or amendments to Personal Health Information we retain on your behalf if you believe something in that information is in error or needs to be amended. We are not always required to make the corrections or amendments you request but each request will be carefully reviewed and corrections or amendments made if warranted. You will be notified when your request has been approved or denied. Please provide as much detail as possible regarding the record type, the location, the date and the problem. For instance, "My laboratory test results from ABC laboratory of December 5, 2000 show a blood test I never received" or "Dr. Jones in your North Street Clinic recorded in my record on December 5, 2000 that I was suffering from weakness in my right leg when in fact the weakness was in my left leg". In order to review the requested correction, we must be able to locate the record in issue and the exact entries or reports you want corrected.
